

MARIE C. GERARDIN, J.D., Ph.D

Adjunct Professor, General Education and Business Departments

NECB Faculty Member since 2000

Education

Ph. D., Education and the Law
Capella University

J. D., New England School of Law

B. A., International Affairs
University of Maine

NECB Courses Taught

Corporations and Compliance: Case Studies
Risk Management for Compliance Professionals
Regulations and Regulatory Agencies
International Business Management
Business Ethics
Business Law

Notes

Professor Gerardin has been teaching at NECB since 2000 in both the undergraduate and graduate programs. She also taught Business Law and Ethics in the MBA program at Averett College in Virginia. Prior to her position at Averett College, she worked in the banking and mortgage industry for 15 years at Fleet Mortgage Corporation and First Federal Savings Bank where she served a term as the Community Reinvestment Officer.