

LESLIE HITCH

Adjunct Professor, Business Department

NECB Faculty Member since ____

Education

Doctorate in Higher Education Administration
University of Massachusetts, Boston

Cert. in Management & Leadership in Education
Harvard Graduate School of Education

M.B.A. from Simmons College

B.A. from Simmons College

NECB Courses Taught

Operations Management

Notes

Leslie Hitch is a Senior Faculty Fellow in the Northeastern College of Professional Studies with a specialization in higher education administration and leadership studies. In addition to her online and on-ground teaching, she is a Teaching Fellow for the Northeastern– Swinburne (Melbourne Australia) Global Leadership program. She was for seven years Director of Academic Technology Services at Northeastern. Prior to joining Northeastern, she was a Vice President at Harcourt, Inc. during the launch of their online college. Her higher education experience includes developing executive education at Babson College, directing the Simmons College Masters in Communications Management, and involvement in strategic planning for several colleges. She was an invited speaker at Campus Technology and has presented at CIES 2010, Educause and NERCOMP.