

CARRIE LORENZO

Teaching Assistant, Business Ethics and Compliance Program

NECB Faculty Member since 2010

Education

B.A. in Culinary Arts & Food Service Management
Johnson & Wales University

M.S. in Business Ethics & Compliance with a concentration in Forensic Accounting
New England College of Business

NECB Courses Taught

Corporate Compliance: Case Studies

Corporate Compliance: Roles and Responsibilities

Regulations & Regulators: A Practical Application

Notes

Carrie started her financial service career in 2001 and in 2006 moved to Massachusetts to continue developing that career. She is currently a Senior Income Specialist within the USIS division of Sate Street Corporation.

Carrie has worked as a Teaching Assistant on several of the MBE classes and is currently working as an Independent Instructor. In addition to teaching at NECB, Carrie was a student in the MBE program and participated in the steering committee which created the NECB Alumni Association. She currently holds the position of President Elect.