

Natalie McVeigh, M.B.E.

Adjunct Professor, General Education Department
NECB Faculty Member since 2010

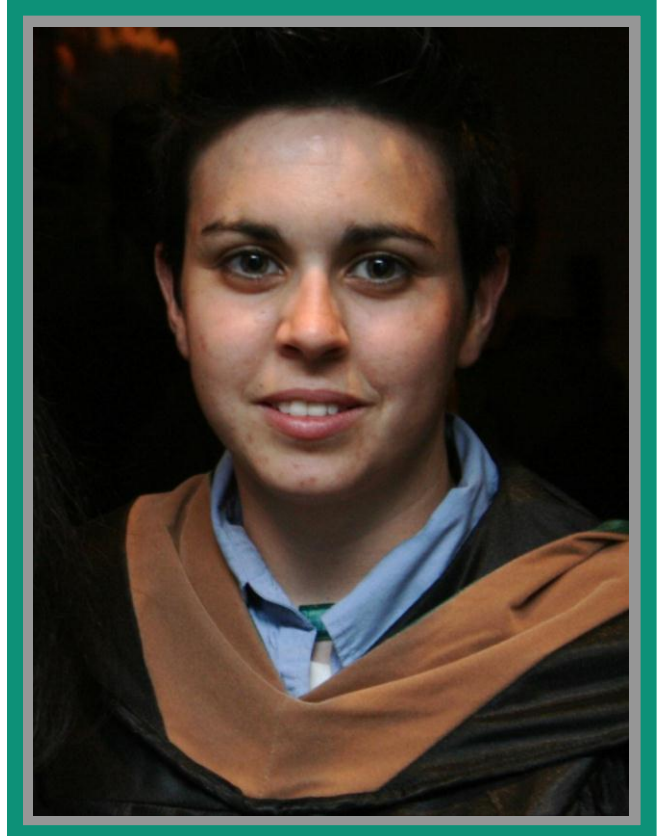

Education

Master's in Business Ethics & Compliance
New England College of Business, 2010

B.A. in Law and Society / Philosophy
Hood College

NECB Courses Taught

Critical Thinking
Logic for Managers

Notes

Natalie has worked in a variety of companies and boards as an advisor. She specializes in business ethics and compliance as well as corporate governance. Currently she is a Research Analyst at Strategic Designs for Learning where performs in-depth analysis on a variety of family business topics to use as best practices, curriculum or client deliverables. Natalie has been an Associate Committee Member, Ethics Committee on the Board of Directors at Generations Incorporated and a Due Diligence Manager at TRACE International, Inc.

Natalie earned her Master's of Science in Business Ethics and Compliance at New England College of Business and Finance and a BA in Law and Society as well as Philosophy from Hood College. She is the Secretary of NECB's Alumni Association's Executive Council.

She is a proud AmeriCorps alumna and recipient of the Presidential Service Award in 2009. She is an Emergency Dispatcher and Disaster Action Team Member as well as a CPR/First Aid/AED Instructor for the American Red Cross.