

SANDRA L. OWEN

Adjunct Professor, General Education Department
NECB Faculty Member since 1987

Education

M.S. Business Administration
University of Phoenix

B.S. Business Administration
Eastern Nazarene College

A.S. Business Administration
New England College of Business and Finance

Certificate in Financial Planning
Boston University

NECB Courses Taught

Principles of Banking

Mutual Funds I and II

Principles of Financial Services and Investments

Recipient of the prestigious Shaughnessy and McLaughlin Awards for teaching excellence and contributions to NECB, Sandie is most passionate about working directly with students on ground or online.

Notes

Sandie has worked within the financial services industry since 1970, beginning in insurance, moving to officer and senior level positions in banking and founding Wellington Group Incorporated in 1990. As a full time consultant to financial companies in the areas of training and development, Wellington Group serves clients in six states domestically and has developed programming for the Ministry of Education in Bermuda and a Russian banking trade association hosting an educational symposium in the United States. Sandie is also credited with developing programming for community based organizations with multi-state reach and is especially proud of her specialty in the topic of financial literacy. Sandie served as project manager and contributing author on published text revisions on the topic of banking.