

Steve Rudnick, A.B.D.

Adjunct Professor, Accounting
NECB Faculty Member since 2011

Education

A.B.D. Accounting
Argosy University

M.S. in Professional Accounting
Strayer University

B.S. in Finance
Northeastern University

NECB Courses Taught

Accounting I
Managerial Accounting

Notes

Steve Rudnick is a self-employed small business and not for profit accountant. During the past eight years, Steve's work experience has included church and synagogue accounting, real estate and investment accounting, and a stint as a stockbroker for Oppenheimer & Company, a regional brokerage house. Steve is a member of the American Accounting Association, and is actively involved in dissertation research concerning integrating sustainability measures with cost accounting systems..